the Common System of Salaries and Allowances of the United Nations and Specialized Agencies, as the amount actually paid to the employee after the deduction of the Staff Assessment; (iii) for other international organizations, as the amount actually paid to the employee. In cases where pay is subject to State and local taxes, this shall be the pay before the deduction of the taxes.

(2) Allowances, post differential, and other monetary benefits are defined by the Secretary of State as follows:

- (i) Federal Government: The amount that would have been paid under sections 5921–5925 of title 5, United States Code, applicable provisions of chapters 100, 200, and 500 of the Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians Foreign Areas) and implementing agency regulations had the employee been detailed to the international organization under section 3343 of title 5, United States Code:
- (ii) International organizations following the Common System of Salaries and Allowances of the United Nations and Specialized Agencies: The amount paid under pertinent provisions of the Staff Regulations and Rules of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies;
- (iii) Other international organizations not under the Common System of Salaries and Allowances of the United Nations and Specialized Agencies: The amount paid under pertinent conditions of service applied by the organizations as determined to be appropriate by the releasing agency with the concurrence of the Secretary of State.
- (3) Travel and subsistence expenses, transportation of effects, and leave are not considered monetary benefits for purposes of this section.
- (4) In exceptional circumstances where a hardship or an inequity would otherwise occur the Secretary of State, on the recommendation of the head of the agency, may specify allowances or other monetary benefits in lieu of or in addition to those specified above.
- (b) Authoritative information on pay, allowances, post differential, and other monetary benefits as defined in paragraph (a) of this section for the Federal Government and the international organizations is maintained currently by the Department of State and is made available on request to any Federal department, agency, or employee concerned.

(c) Agency and employee responsibilities for reporting and documenting payments received from international organizations are specified in OPM issuances.

§352.311 Reemployment.

- (a) A transferred employee is entitled to be reemployed in his or her former position or one of like seniority, status, and pay within 30 days of his or her application for reemployment if he or she meets the following conditions:
- (1) He or she is separated, either voluntarily or involuntarily, within his or her term of employment with an international organization; and
- (2) He or she applies for reemployment to his or her former agency or its successor no later than 90 days after his or her separation.
- (b) When an employee's right is to a position in the SES, reemployment or return may be to any position in the SES for which the employee is qualified. The employee shall be returned at not less than the SES pay level at which the employee was being paid immediately before his or her transfer, or if pay has been adjusted under §352.314(c), at not less than the adjusted pay level.
